

BOYS BASKETBALL:

Freedman, Hayon helping USA win at World Maccabiah Games

Posted on July 23, 2013 by Jack Pollon

The World Maccabiah games are taking place in Israel this week with over 80 countries competing.

Team USA is undefeated after a 77-47 victory against Venezuela, a 100-25 thrashing of Turkey and a 77-44 victory against Canada.

Spencer Freedman, a Los Angeles resident, who is considering several area high schools for 2014-2015 has been a scoring machine.

Westlake's Michael Hayon has also been contributing for a team with no players older than 16.

Freedman scored 19 points and had five assists against Venezuela, scored 19 points, had seven assists and four steals against Turkey and poured in 21 points against previously undefeated Canada.

Hayon scored nine points against Canada.

Team USA faces undefeated Argentina next.

Stay tuned for updates.
