Spencer Freedman and Michael Hayon are playing an important part for Team USA at the World Maccabiah games in Israel.

Freedman, who will only be in eighth grade this upcoming school year, scored six points and had eight assists in a 72-32 quarterfinal victory against Argentina.

Freedman added 16 points and eight assists in a 90-20 semifinal victory against Australia.

Hayon, who recently transferred to Westlake from Calabasas, has been controlling the paint with a lot of rebounds.
