

Varsity Times Insider

High school sports across the Southland

Boys' basketball: Spencer Freedman selects Santa Monica as his high school

By ERIC SONDHEIMER

MAY 30, 2014, 10:26 AM

Spencer Freedman, considered to be one of the best incoming freshman point guards in Southern California, has decided to attend Santa Monica High, his father, Bryan, said Friday.

The 6-foot Freedman has been one of the best players on the travel ball circuit for his class.

His decision gives Santa Monica a guard trio that will be hard to top. He'll join senior Nuwr'iyl Williams and junior Jonah Mathews.