

BOYS BASKETBALL: Santa Monica 61, Campbell Hall 55

Posted on November 28, 2014 by Jack Pollon

Gabriel Salazar did his best to try and make up for the absence of the injured Aaron Holiday, but it wasn't enough for Campbell Hall in a 61-55 consolation semifinal setback in the Redondo tournament.

Salazar scored 21 points, including 17 and five 3-pointers in the first half to lead the Vikings.

Campbell Hall was feeling good at halftime after Salazar made a running 3-pointer from nearly half court to give the Vikings a 32-27 advantage.

Santa Monica's Jonah Mathews got hot in the third quarter and helped Santa Monica during an 18-8 run to turn things around.

Mathews scored 19 points to lead Santa Monica.

Nu Williams and freshman Spencer Freedman each scored 14 points for Santa Monica (2-1).

Williams is headed to Auburn and Freedman is one of the top ninth graders on the West Coast.

Freedman displayed some excellent ball-handling skills and his court vision was nearly flawless.

Campbell Hall plays Taft or Peninsula at 11 am Saturday.

This entry was posted in Boys Basketball, Chatter by Jack Pollon. Bookmark the permalink [<http://blogs.dailynews.com/preps/2014/11/28/boys-basketball-santa-monica-61-campbell-hall-55/>].
