Cole Anthony 6’2” 2019 Archbishop Molloy (New York NY)

DeAndre Ayton 7’0” 2017 Hillcrest (Phoenix AZ)

Monster post-player is a terror on both ends of the floor and is also a very underrated face-up perimeter shooter. Incredible length and agility make Ayton nearly impossible to keep off the glass where he makes a living off tip-jams and alley-oops! Ayton’s 19 points sparked his White squad to the W in the Top 30 game and was named co-MVP of the contest. Talent, physical attributes and upside are so immense that I wouldn’t be surprised if he is the 1st pick of 2018 NBA Draft.

Jontay Porter 6’10” 2018 Father Tolten (Columbia MO)

Very underrated rising junior has excellent scoring skills and the body of a young Wayman Tisdale. Older brother Michael gets lion-share of the current attention in the Porter household but don’t sleep on Jontay who will be a very important piece of the future for Lorenzo Romar’s Washington Huskies. Terrific student (4.0 GPA) followed up his fine play here with an impressive performance at the Nike Elite 100 Camp in St. Louis MO the next weekend.
