With Nike EYBL Session I officially in the books, it's time to look back at the biggest bucket getters, glass cleaners, dime droppers, swipers, and swatters from this past weekend at the Boo Williams Sportsplex in Hampton, VA. Needless to say, there were some incredible stat-stuffing performances throughout the three-day event.

However, no player filled it up more than Nike Phamily's Marvin Bagley III. The nation's No. 1 player might not have seen his squad win, but he currently leads the league in scoring and rebounding after four games.

What were some of the other top team and individual performances? Take a look.
